Have your say about what you want

What you can do

People with disability need different things.

People have different

- Religions

- Cultures
- Languages

- Hobbies
- Work

You have your own needs and wants.

This is important to you.

For example

- You want to meet people and find a partner
- You may want to go to church
- You may be young.
- You may want to do things with other young people.

You can choose what you want to do

You can get help to do what you want now.

You can talk about what you want to do in the future.

What I Am Here should do for you

I Am Here should talk to you about what you want to do.

I Am Here should know what is important to you.

For example, they should know about your

- Family
- Friends
- Hobbies
- Religion
- Culture

I Am Here should make a plan with you.

Your play says what is important to you.

I Am Here should

- Help you do things in your plan
- Check your plan
- Tell you when you do things well
- Talk to you when things do not work
